Sponsorship Opportunities

EUSIPCO is the flagship conference of the European Association for Signal Processing (EURASIP). The 23rd edition will be held in Nice, on the French Riviera, from 31st August to 4th September 2015. EUSIPCO 2015 will feature world-class speakers, oral and poster sessions, keynote talks, exhibitions, demonstrations and tutorials and is expected to attract in the order of 600 researchers and industry figures from all over the world.

EUSIPCO 2015 will focus on signal and image processing theory, algorithms, and applications. The conference covers a large number of applications of interest: just to mention a few, audio and acoustic signal processing, speech processing, image and video processing, multimedia signal processing, signal processing theory and methods, sensor array and multichannel signal processing, nonlinear signal processing, machine learning, signal processing education, signal processing applications, design and implementation of signal processing systems, information forensics and security, bio-inspired signal and image processing including for health and aging-related applications.

Sponsors of EUSIPCO 2015 will contribute to the success of the conference and will gain recognition as leaders in the technical fields of the conference. Sponsorship also helps to enhance the quality of the technical programme, to provide the best conference amenities and social events, and is also key to ensuring that registrations rates are affordable to an international audience.

The organizing committee extends its invitation to become an official Sponsor of EUSIPCO 2015. Your support will be acknowledged on the conference website, in the programme guide, flyers in the conference bags and in the conference opening and closing addresses. A number of sponsorship packages are available, tailored to organisations of all sizes, each offering a range of publicity opportunities, complimentary registrations and exclusivity. The packages are flexible and can be customised to individual needs, requirements and budgets, and also offer the possibility to sponsor specific social events.

Being a sponsor and/or an exhibitor at EUSIPCO 2015 conference gives you the opportunity to present your company to an interested, highly-qualified, and international audience.

Proposals are warmly invited by email to: sponsorship@eusipco2015.org

Please consider lending your support to EUSIPCO 2015 as an official sponsor.
